PLOT TO KILL HECHLER.

Mrs. J. L. Hechler and Royal Ellerson were in the police court in Richmord yesterday to answer a charge of having conspired together for the puropose of murdering the husband of the woman. This is the case that at racted so much attention several weeks ago, when Hechler was badly injured by being struck twice with bullets fired at him by Elleron, whom he had found at night in company with Mrs. Hechler.

The man and the woman were both re manded to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Much evidence was adduced to show Much evidence was adduced to show that there was a courpiracy between the two. It was shown that the reports about burglars being in the neighbor-hood were manufactured and circulated, it is said, for the express purpose of in-ducing Hechler to go into the yard so that he might be made a t rget for Eller-

Witnesses were produced who testified to having seen Mrs. Hechler greet Ellerson affectionately when he came to the house. Others stated that she had been heard to say that her husband was a fool and that she wished somebody would kill him and get him out of her way.
